Claim Objections

Claims 30,35-43 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 30 line 2, it appears that "wheel" should be inserted after "toothed". In claim 35 line 3, "a frame a frame" is not understood and should probably be changed to "a frame". In claim 43 line 4, "a travel direction" lacks proper antecedent basis as antecedent basis for "a travel direction" has been established in claim 42. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 26-30,33-39,42,43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Martin (4,785,890).

Martin discloses an apparatus for preparing soil including a frame, a coulter wheel 32 and at least one toothed wheel 50 overlapping at least a portion of the coulter wheel as shown in figures 7-9.

Concerning claims 30 & 39, the central axis of the toothed wheel resides rearwardly of the central axis of the coulter wheel when viewed from behind the apparatus. Additionally, given the structure of Martin, the claimed method steps would inherently be performed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 31,40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin (4,785,890). in view of Hohl (4,407,371).

Bermel discloses an apparatus as described previously, but lacks the coultter wheel being one of a wave and ripple construction.

Hohl teaches that a coultter wheel being of a wave and ripple construction 34 is an equivalent structure known in the art. Therefore, because these two coultters were art-recognized equivalents at the time the invention was made, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to substitute the coultter of Hohl for the coultter of Martin.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 32,41 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
